ORDER ALLOWING ATTORNEYS' FEE

HAVING CONSIDERED the application for allowance of attorneys' fee filed in this docket on July 27, 1973, for the law firm of Sonnenschein Levinson Carlin Nath & Rosenthal, attorneys for the above-named plaintiffs, by Edwin A. Rothschild, Esquire, a member of said firm and attorney of record for the said plaintiffs; the defendant's response to the application, filed on September 7, 1973; the contracts under which the attorneys served the Ponca Tribe of Oklahoma; and the remainder of the record herein, the Commission finds as follows:

1. Award. On August 27, 1965, the Commission entered a final award on the plaintiffs' claim in this case in the sum of $2,458.30 (15 Ind. Cl. Comm. 573, 576). Funds to pay the award were appropriated by the Act of May 13, 1966 (80 Stat. 141, 150).

2. Attorney Contracts. The representation of the plaintiffs in this case was initially under contract No. I-1-ind. 42433 that the Ponca Tribe of Oklahoma entered into on May 5, 1950, with the law firm of Sonnenschein Berkson Lautmann Levinson & Morse (now Sonnenschein Levinson Carlin Nath & Rosenthal). This contract was approved on November 8, 1950, and had an initial term of ten years that commenced on that date. An extension of the contract for an additional period of five years that began on November 8, 1960, was approved on October 21, 1959. On September 16, 1965, the Ponca Tribe of Oklahoma entered into a supplemental employment agreement with the law firm of Sonnenschein Levinson Carlin Nath & Rosenthal under which the said firm continued to serve as attorneys for the tribe. This agreement, assigned contract No. 14-0200-2000, was approved on October 12, 1965, and had an initial term of five years that began on November 9, 1965. An extension of the agreement from November 8, 1970, through the earlier of November 8, 1973, or the date of final disposition of all claims of the tribe then pending before the Indian Claims Commission was approved on May 6, 1970.

3. Compensation Under the Contracts and Requested Fee. The aforementioned contract and supplemental agreement each provide, among other things, that compensation to the attorneys for services rendered is to be wholly contingent upon a recovery for the tribe and shall be 10 percent of the amount recovered through their efforts for the tribe. The attorneys' application requests allowance of the sum of $245.83, an amount equal to 10 percent of the award on the plaintiffs' claim, as compensation for services rendered in connection with that award.

4. Response of the Defendant. The defendant's response to the attorneys' fee application transmitted a copy of a letter dated August 14, 1973, from the Acting Associate Solicitor, Indian Affairs, United States Department of the Interior, and an accompanying memorandum dated August 7, 1973, signed by Mr. Newton W. Edwards for the Assistant to the Secretary of the Interior, and took no position as to the fee that should be awarded. The letter from the Acting Associate Solicitor referred to the memorandum from Mr. Edwards and concluded by stating:

The memorandum relates the history of the applicable tribal claims attorney contracts and advises of their compensation provisions. As the requested attorneys' fees are in the amount specifically provided for by the contracts, we have no objection to their allowance.

5. Notice to the Tribe. A notice of the filing of the application for allowance of attorneys' fee, together with a copy of the application, was mailed by the Deputy Clerk of the Commission on July 27, 1973, to the Chairman of the Ponca Tribe of Oklahoma. No response to the notice was received by the Commission.

6. Attorneys' Services. Pursuant to their contracts with the plaintiff tribe, the attorneys investigated, filed and prosecuted the claim herein on which the plaintiffs were awarded the sum of $2,458.30. For services rendered in connection with that award the attorneys are entitled under the terms of their contracts with the Ponca Tribe of Oklahoma to an attorneys' fee in the requested sum of $245.83.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that out of the funds appropriated to pay the final award entered in this case on August 27, 1965, there shall be disbursed to the law firm of Sonnenschein Levinson Carlin Nath &

Rosenthal of Chicago, Illinois, the sum of $245.83 as payment in full for all services rendered herein in the prosecution of the plaintiffs' claim.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 12th day of September 1973.
