ORDER DISMISSING PLAINTIFF'S PETITION

HAVING ENTERED an opinion and order in this case on July 25, 1974, requiring the above-named plaintiff within 30 days from that date to show cause why its amended petition herein should not be dismissed, and by our order of September 18, 1974, having extended the plaintiff's time for showing such cause through an additional period of time ending on September 23, 1974, and having received a letter of September 30, 1974, from the attorney of record for the plaintiff advising of a determination to take no action in regard to the Commission's opinion, and

IT APPEARING TO THE COMMISSION for reasons stated in our opinion herein of July 25, 1974, that accompanied the order to show cause why plaintiff's petition should not be dismissed, that the plaintiff's amended petition fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted (34 Ind. Cl. Comm. 290), the Commission therefore ORDERS that the plaintiff's amended petition in Docket 236-G be, and the same hereby is, dismissed with prejudice.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of September 1974.
