FINAL AWARD

1. An interlocutory order was entered herein on September 9, 1978, 42 Ind. Cl. Comm. 74, 249, awarding, inter alia, the plaintiff tribe $116,144.00, less any gratuitous offsets to which the defendant may be entitled under the provisions of the Indian Claims Commission Act.

2. On September 21, 1978, counsel for defendant advised the Commission that defendant will reserve for claims in other dockets involving this plaintiff any claims for gratuitous offsets. Defendant interposes no objection to the Commission entering a final award in this docket.

3. In such circumstances, the Commission will, on its own motion, enter a final award herein.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that, as a final award in full satisfaction of all claims against the defendant in Docket 314-B, plaintiff Peoria Tribe of Oklahoma does have and recover from defendant on behalf of the Wea Tribe, as constituted in 1818, the sum of one hundred sixteen thousand, one hundred forty-four dollars and no cents ($116,144.00), and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any gratuitous offsets which defendant could have claimed as chargeable against the award herein be, and the same hereby are, reserved for defendant to claim in any other docketed case brought by this plaintiff under the provisions of the Indian Claims Commission Act.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of September 1978.
